

AN INVESTIGATION INTO FACTORS THAT HAVE LED TO DETERIORATION OF BOY
CHILD EDUCATION AT NJABINI NYANDARUA COUNTY

BY

STEPHEN NJOGU KARIUKI

BEDS/000513/1121/03185

A RESEARCH PROJECT SUBMITTED TO THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION IN PARTIAL FULFILMENT OF THE REQUIREMENT FOR THE AWARD BACHELOR OF EDUCATION
SCIENCE IN MOUNT KENYA UNIVERSITY.

ABSTRACT

The study was carried out to analyze factors that are responsible for the deterioration of boy child at Njabini. The study indicated that deterioration at O level is still very high. This was found due to the following. Gender disparity in various spheres of life is common and has been affecting the social economic and political development over the years. The purpose of the study was to examine the factors that have led to deterioration of boy child education at Njabini Nyandarua County. The objectives of the study were to establish how socio-cultural factors have led to deterioration of boys' education, to assess how lack of motivation has led to deterioration of boy child education at Njabini Nyandarua County, to assess how parental influence has led to deterioration of boys' education, to establish how drug usage has led to deterioration of boy child education at Njabini in Nyandarua County.