

FACTORS INFLUENCING MARKETING OF ALCOHOLIC
BEVERAGES IN KENYA
A STUDY OF EAST AFRICAN BREWERIES LIMITED
(EABL)

By:

MWANGULU JOHNESTER ALI

BBA, PG Dip. M (CIM)

REG. NO : MBA/NRP/102/007

A Research Project submitted to the Postgraduate Studies Department in Partial Fulfillment for the Degree of Masters in Business Administration of the Mount Kenya University

Mount Kenya University LIBRARY

NOVEMBER 2011

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The writing of this project owes a great deal to the caliber, acumen, expensive and encouragement of several. First and foremost, I thank God for enabling me to complete this study. This study was possible because of God's unlimited grace, mercy and favor.

Special appreciation goes to East African Breweries Limited for the feedback in questionnaires and interviews. Without their participation and cooperation, this study would not have been completed.

My sincere gratitude to Prof. King'oriah, a scholar for his solid guidance, motivation and evaluation to ensure this project meets the standards in the academia. I wish to thank my lecturers in Mt. Kenya University, Post graduate coordinator Dr. Maathai for inspiration and guidance throughout my studies. Deserving special mention are classmates; Julius Nzyoka, Judith Mobegi, Mary Mwangi, Raphel Gichora, Amos Musau, Geoffery Taboi among others.

Earnest tribute to my wife, Grace Mumbi for being generously supportive and pivotal throughout this study. May God bless her to our children Risper and Jeff, for inspiration and support made this mission possible. May you live to challenge this work at beyond Graduate level.