Message from the Chief Guest

Dr. Beatrice Muganda Inyangala, PhD
Principal Secretary, State Department for Higher Education and Research, Ministry of Education

It gives me great honour to join the Mount Kenya University fraternity during the 25th Graduation Ceremony.

I recognize in a very special way the incredible journey of this great University. Determined to augment the Government's efforts to increase access to affordable, relevant and quality university education, Mount Kenya University chose the path less travelled.

I congratulate the University for making great strides over the 25 years of its existence to build an international brand. Today, the University has partnered with several universities across the continent and globally not only to provide quality education but also to facilitate a seamless transition of graduates into the labour market, at home and internationally.

As you are aware, Kenya has embraced the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as well as the African Union's Agenda 2063. It is, therefore, gratifying to note that Mount Kenya University is physically playing a critical role in support of the country's international commitments. Mount Kenya University is hosting the United Nations Academic Impact (UNAI) SDG 10. Specifically, the University has been hosting the Hub on Reduced Inequalities for the past three years. The milestones achieved are attributed to the University's innovative programmes in teaching, research and community engagement.

Indeed, Mount Kenya University is a key pillar in the Kenyan Research, Science, Technology and Innovation ecosystem. Emerging innovations by staff and students drawing on ICT are poised to revolutionize production and service delivery in this country. The State Department for Higher Education and Research will continue to support similar initiatives in our universities.

We commit to provide a conducive policy environment for scaling innovations to achieve notable outcomes that address our local challenges and enhance livelihoods.

As government, we are working closely with a wide spectrum of stakeholders in the Research, Science, Technology and Innovation ecosystem to catalyze progress towards attainment of the targets set out in our Bottom-Up Economic Transformation Agenda around: Healthcare; Agriculture; Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs); Housing and Settlement; and, the Digital Superhighway and Creative Economy.

Our graduands are our beacon of hope. They are the positive change agents that this country needs – now more than ever. I challenge the 2024 MKU graduands to use the knowledge and skills acquired in this university to make a difference in the future of this country. Let us focus our energy towards attainment of the development goals articulated in our economic blueprint - the Kenya Vision 2030. Together, we have the capacity to steer this country to become a middle-income country with all citizens enjoying a high quality of life in a secure environment.

Positive change begins with you and me, it begins with our youth, even as they aspire to become global leaders in future. I, therefore, urge MKU 2024 graduands to seize every opportunity to promote peace, self-reliance, and, to engage in activities that foster economic prosperity for themselves, their families, communities and the country at large.

Message From THE CHANCELLOR

PROF. JOHN J.M. STRUTHERS, MA (Hons), MPhil, FRSA, FHEAS
Chancellor, MKU

Already, 2024 has been another productive year for Mount Kenya University (MKU) and especially on the partnership with the University of the West of Scotland (UWS). We witnessed the successful hosting by MKU of the UWS-based Centre for African Research on Enterprise and Economic Development (CAREED) 8th International Conference, which was the first CAREED Conference to be held in Africa. The Head of the Division of Health and Migration at the World Health Organization (WHO), Dr. Santino Severoni, and the renowned Kenyan social entrepreneur Professor Charles Mully of the Mully Children Family (MCF) were the Keynote Speakers. The hosting of this year's MKU has forged a new partnership with Cape Media Limited's Talent Academy that will enable youth to innovatively develop their talents and fully benefit from the fast growing Creative Economy which will contribute to job and wealth creation among the youth.

conference by MKU was a testimony to MKU's expanding commitment to internationalization, which goes hand-in-hand with the continuing roll-out of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) agenda at the University. This also comes along with many new partnerships involving the university across the world.

Locally, MKU has forged a new partnership with Cape Media Limited's Talent Academy that will enable youth to innovatively develop their talents and fully benefit from the fast growing Creative Economy which will contribute to job and wealth creation among the youth. In addition, among other achievements in institutional and industry linkages, the university has formalized its partnership with the Kenyatta University Teaching, Research, and Referral Hospital (KUTRRH), which is not only a milestone achievement for the College of Health Sciences but also for MKU in general and indeed for the entire East African region.

Against this positive background, I wish all of the graduands at today's ceremony God's blessings in abundance as they move on to serve their local and global communities in many and diverse capacities. MKU has undoubtedly trained them well enough for the local and global labour market.

Asanteni Sana na Mungu Awabariki

Message From

THE CHAIRMAN, UNIVERSITY COUNCIL

DR. VINCENT GAITHO, PhD
Chairman University Council, MKU

I take this opportunity to welcome all of you as we celebrate the 25th Graduation ceremony of Mount Kenya University. With a view to enhancing learning and research at the University, the Council has continued to support the University initiatives in various spheres. Therefore, the University Council has undertaken:

1. Approval of the Establishment of the Alumni Relations Directorate

Given the importance with which MKU holds its alumni, and in order to respond to emerging issues and support the growing number of alumni, the operations of the alumni office have been strengthened by separating it from Students Welfare by establishing a stand-alone directorate of Alumni Relations. Subsequently, the management of alumni affairs has been moved to the Divisional Unit of Corporate Services, Communication & Alumni Relations, under the Directorate of Alumni Relations. The coordination of Student Career Services intended to promote career guidance has been moved to the Directorate of Student Recruitment, Admissions, Registration & Career Services.

2. Development of Academic Resources

The Council appreciates the unequivocal support by the Board of Directors towards the improvement of academic resources that will boost the delivery of teaching, learning, research and innovation. Towards this end, there are notable developments.

- State-of-the-art Pharmacy Laboratories - Nakuru Campus

Four Pharmacy laboratories have been developed and designed to support Pharmacognosy, Pharmacology, Pharmaceutical Chemistry and Pharmaceutics research and training in Nakuru City Campus of MKU. To authenticate the facilities, Pharmacy and Poisons Board inspected the laboratories for accreditation and to confirm them fit for use to offer Pharmacy training and related skills and knowledge.

- Nursing Skills Laboratories – Thika (Main) Campus

The skills laboratories include emergency, theater and triage. The University has acquired two high fidelity simulation mannequins. These improvements will improve the quality of the practical training of health professionals and support the expansion of the School of Nursing admission capacity.

- Refurbishing of Students Centre

Purpose of Students Centre in a University is to enhance the overall student experience by providing an environment that supports both academic and social aspects of Campus life. The refurbishing of the Student Center was meant to ease delivery of service and promote a student life experience outside the lecture halls. It is meant to unlock the holistic person MKU targets to release to the world of work and service.

Conclusion

Dear graduands, as you embark on the next phase of your journey, remember that sustainability is not just a goal but a responsibility we all share. With the knowledge and skills, you've gained here, you have the power to innovate, research, and lead towards a more sustainable and just future for all. On my own behalf and that of the MKU Council, accept our Congratulations and may you carry the spirit of sustainability, innovation and solution making with you as you step into the world of work and service.

Message From THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

PROF. DEOGRATIUS JAGANYI,
PhD, MSc, DIC, MRSC
Vice-Chancellor, MKU

The United Nations recognizes the pivotal role of research and innovation in human development. Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 9, which focuses on Industry, Innovation, and Infrastructure, calls for increased investment in research and innovation to enhance technological capabilities and improve access to information, dissemination, and communication. This goal underscores research and innovation as key drivers of socioeconomic development, vital for improving the well-being of Kenyans and Africa.

Kenya Vision 2030 acknowledges the significance of research in enhancing competitiveness, driving industrialization, improving education and skill development, and ensuring sustainable management of Kenya's natural resources, especially in the circular and blue economies. Additionally, Kenya's Science,

The university has continued to invest in applied research and innovation through the Vice-Chancellor's Research and Innovation Grant, which supports faculty and students in their endeavors.

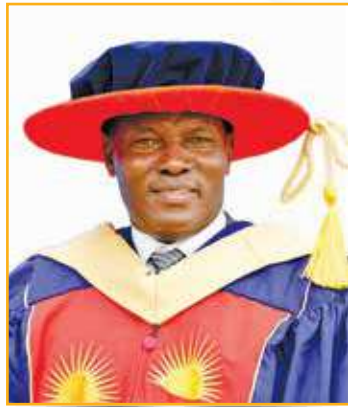

Technology, and Innovation (STI) policy envisions accelerating the transition to a knowledge-based economy.

Mount Kenya University's strategic plan positions the institution as a leading research university in the region and across the continent. The university has continued to invest in applied research and innovation through the Vice-Chancellor's Research and Innovation Grant, which supports faculty and students in their endeavours. We have forged strategic partnerships and collaborations that have significantly increased our research outputs, particularly with the US, EU, UK, Japan, and Africa institutions. Notably, these collaborations have led to the construction of state-of-the-art facilities such as the Malaria Elimination Centre and the hosting of international conferences like CAREED. Our efforts have attracted prestigious awards, such as the SEPT-Competence Centre & AGEA Award by the University of Leipzig. These achievements are reflected in improved web rankings and global recognition of our research and innovation achievements.

Our postgraduate and postdoctoral programs have grown, attracting students and fellows by offering platforms for conducting cutting-edge research. The university remains committed to supporting its faculty, students, and the community to enhance living standards through research and innovation.

As you peruse the highlights of our research activities in this bulletin for 2024, I hope we will continue to harness our intellectual capacities to provide homegrown solutions leveraging sustainability for continued prosperity.

HIPPOCRATIC OATH - School of Clinical Medicine

I,.....

Reg. No. swear to fulfill, to the best of my ability and judgement, this covenant: I will respect the hard-won scientific gain of those physicians in whose steps I walk, and gladly share such knowledge as is mine with those who are to follow. I will apply, for the benefit of the sick, all measures that are required, avoiding those twin traps overtreatment and therapeutic nihilism. I will remember that there is art to medicine as well as science, and that warmth, sympathy and understanding may outweigh the surgeon's knife or the chemist's drug.

I will not be ashamed to say "I know not," nor will I fail to call in my colleagues when the skills of another are needed for a patient's recovery.

I will respect the privacy of my patients; their problems disclosed to me that the world may not know. Most especially must I tread with care in matters of life and death. If it is given to me to save a life, all thanks. But it may also be within my power to take a life: this awesome responsibility must be faced with great humbleness and awareness of my own frailty. "Above all, I must not play at God".

I will remember that I do not treat a fever chart, a cancerous growth, but a sick human being, whose illness may affect the person's family and economic stability. My responsibilities include these related problem, if I am to care adequately for the sick.

I will prevent disease whenever I can; bearing in mind prevention is preferable to cure.

I will remember that I remain a member of society, with special obligations to all my fellow human beings, those of sound mind and body as well as the infirm.

If I don't violate this oath, may I enjoy life, be respected while I live and remembered with affection thereafter. May I always act so as to preserve the finest traditions of my calling, and may I long to experience the joy of healing those who seek my help

Student's Testimonial - Innovation

MKU STUDENT WINS GLOBAL HUAWEI ICT COMPETITION, CHINA

The Huawei ICT Competition, initiated in 2015 as part of the Huawei ICT Academy is a collaborative effort to enrich the ICT talent pool by transferring the latest knowledge from a global technology leader. The 2023-2024 edition featured four distinct tracks: cloud, computing, network, and innovation, reflecting Huawei's dedication to diverse technological fields.

Daniel Apolo Ochola, an Information Technology student at Mount Kenya University was among a team of 18 Kenyans who won during the competition held in China in May 2024. My success story with the Huawei ICT Talent Academy competition began unexpectedly while scrolling through Twitter one evening. The announcement of the competition caught my eye, offering tracks in cloud computing, networking, and computing. Recognizing the opportunity, I immersed myself in self-study from August to November 2023, focusing on cloud computing, artificial intelligence, and big data.

The preliminary examination in November marked the beginning of an intense journey. I advanced to the national level, securing second place in the cloud track. This achievement propelled me to the regional finals, where I represented Kenya in the Southern Africa Region. Training at the Huawei office in Lavinton enhanced my knowledge and gave me practical insights into the IT industry.

Traveling to Shenzhen, China, for the global finals was an eye-opening experience. The city's advanced infrastructure and disciplined, organized society left me in awe. Visits to Huawei's exhibition halls showcased innovations like self-driving vehicle systems, generative AI, and super 5G technology. These experiences broadened my understanding of technological trends and reinforced my passion for IT.

The global finals were a blend of professional growth and cultural exchange. Engaging with peers from various countries enriched my perspective and forged new friendships. Winning third prize was a testament to our hard work, supported by Huawei and our universities. The teamwork with Ian Omwenga and Mark Omaiko from Machakos University was pivotal in our success.

MKU played a crucial role in my journey. The support, resources, and vibrant community at the university were instrumental in shaping my academic and professional path. The recognition and encouragement from the university, including a meeting with the Vice-Chancellor, were moments of pride.

This journey has been about perseverance, collaboration, and the pursuit of excellence. I am deeply grateful for the unwavering support from my family, especially my brother Thomas. As I aspire to become a Huawei ICT Academy student ambassador and a Google Developer Student Club Lead, I am excited about the future and committed to making a meaningful impact in the IT industry.

Daniel Apolo Ochola

Congratulations to all graduands.

FIRST CANCER IMPLEMENTATION SCIENCE SYMPOSIUM

Researchers, university faculty, policy advocates and students converged at the Alumni Plaza of Mount Kenya University on 19th and 20th of June 2024 for the first ever of its kind cancer implementation science symposium. The symposium brought together faculty and students from Mount Kenya University, Dedan Kimathi University of Technology, visiting faculty from universities in the USA, the National Cancer Institute – Kenya and Kilele Health Association. The symposium was graced by MKU's Vice-Chancellor, Prof Deogratius Jaganyi, who in his remarks challenged the participants to discuss programmes that would translate into cancer prevention and early detection in Kenya. Prof. Jaganyi noted that the prevalence of cancer in Kenya has increased, affecting almost every family and impact communities negatively. He further noted that MKU has prioritised cancer as one of areas of research focus by faculty and students.

Implementation science focuses on research to implementation of programmes at community level. It accelerates adoption of solutions since it focuses on testing possible solutions in communities, where they are really to work. The symposium focused on cervical cancer prevention and early detection. Cervical cancer is the second most frequently diagnosed in Kenya but is the leading cause of cancer associated deaths in Kenya. Cervical cancer is preventable through vaccination of girls (and boys if resources allow) aged between 9 and 14 years old, and through screening of sexually active women for presence of pre-cancerous lesions. These lesions, if present, are treated to prevent them from developing into cancer. The protective vaccine is against the Human papilloma virus (HPV), which is associated to over 95% of all cervical cancer cases. HPVs are common sexually transmitted infections, with most of them getting resolved by the individual's immune system without causing any disease. HPV has different strains, with HPV 16 and 18 being the main agents causing cervical cancer. The HPV vaccine targets these strains and assist the immune system to clear future infections and stop the development of cervical cancer.

ELEVATING PUBLIC HEALTH: MKU'S Role in the Ayana Project to Eliminate Cervical Cancer

Mount Kenya University (MKU), in its unwavering commitment to community service and academic excellence, is proud to co-found the Ayana Project (<https://www.hpv.ke/about>). This groundbreaking initiative aims to boost Human papillomavirus (HPV) testing to achieve the World Health Organization (WHO) targets for eliminating cervical cancer. The Ayana Project is a collaborative endeavor that brings together MKU, the Kenya Medical Research Institute (KEMRI), The Pathology Network, and the Foundation for Innovative New Diagnostics (FIND). Together, these institutions share a vision of eradicating one of the most preventable yet deadly cancers affecting women globally.

Central to this initiative is the newly established Institute of Tropical Medicine (ITM) at MKU, led by Dr. Jesse Gitaka. The ITM serves as a hub for advanced research and innovation, housing state-of-the-art infrastructure designed to support cutting-edge work in public health. The Ayana Project is domiciled at this institute, leveraging its capabilities to effectively address the cervical cancer burden. Cervical cancer remains a significant public health challenge, especially in low- and middle-income countries where access to preventive care and diagnostic services is limited. Globally, cervical cancer is the fourth most common cancer among women, with an estimated 604,000 new cases and 342,000 deaths reported in 2020. In Kenya, cervical cancer is the leading cause of cancer-related deaths among women, with approximately 5,250 new cases and 3,286 deaths annually. These statistics highlight the urgent need for effective screening and early diagnosis programs.

The Ayana Project aims to address this pressing health challenge by enhancing HPV testing, a crucial step in the early detection and prevention of cervical cancer. HPV is the primary cause of cervical cancer, and early detection through reliable testing can significantly reduce the disease burden. The WHO has set ambitious targets to eliminate cervical cancer as a public health problem, including 90% of girls fully vaccinated with the HPV vaccine by age 15, and 70% of women screened with a high-performance test by age 35 and again by 45. The Ayana Project aligns perfectly with these targets, aiming to increase HPV testing coverage and ensure timely interventions.

MKU plays a pivotal role in the Ayana consortium, leveraging its academic and research expertise to drive the project's success. The university's involvement encompasses several critical areas. MKU's robust research infrastructure facilitates cutting-edge studies on HPV and cervical cancer, contributing to the development of innovative diagnostic tools. Through its extensive network of community outreach programs, MKU plays a vital role in raising awareness about cervical cancer, promoting HPV vaccination, and encouraging women to undergo regular screening. Additionally, MKU is committed to training healthcare professionals in advanced diagnostic techniques, ensuring a skilled workforce capable of addressing cervical cancer effectively.

The Institute of Tropical Medicine (ITM) at MKU stands as a beacon of progress in strengthening public health research and implementation research capacity in Kenya and globally. Fostering interdisciplinary collaborations and providing an environment conducive to groundbreaking research, the ITM is poised to make substantial contributions to the fight against cervical cancer and other tropical diseases. The institute's advanced infrastructure, including modern laboratories and research facilities, supports high-impact studies that can inform policy and practice in public health.

The Ayana Project exemplifies MKU's dedication to its core mandate of serving the community through education, research, and healthcare initiatives. Addressing the cervical cancer burden not only contributes to improving public health but also enhances the quality of life for countless women and their families. The university's involvement in this project reflects its broader commitment to fostering sustainable development and empowering communities through knowledge and innovation.

The Ayana Project is a testament to what can be achieved through collaborative efforts and a shared vision for a healthier future. Mount Kenya University's role in this initiative bolsters its reputation as a leader in academic and research excellence and reaffirms its commitment to making a tangible impact on public health. Advancing HPV testing and working towards the elimination of cervical cancer positions MKU at the forefront of a transformative movement that promises to save lives and build healthier communities.

As we celebrate our graduates, we also celebrate the strides we are making in public health through initiatives like the Ayana Project. Together, we are not just imagining a future free of cervical cancer—we are making it a reality.

ACADEMIA & INDUSTRIES COLLABORATION TO ENHANCE GRADUATE EMPLOYABILITY

TOT participants (Industry and Academia) at Mount Kenya University.

The ACCESS Training of Trainers (TOT) Workshop, held in 2024, brought together participants from nine local universities and small-to-medium enterprises (SMEs) to address the pressing need for stronger University Business Linkages (UBL) and improved career enhancement strategies. The workshop aimed to bridge the gap between academia and industry, focusing on how to better prepare students for the job market.

1. Academia-Industry Linkages:

The workshop participants emphasized the importance of structured collaborations to align educational programs with market needs. Universities must define the skills and knowledge students should acquire during industrial attachments to ensure alignment with industry expectations.

2. Lessons Learned: Key takeaways from the workshop included:

- Continuous and structured engagement between universities and industries is crucial for bridging gaps and keeping educational programs relevant.

- Implementing well-defined career enhancement programs to equip students with practical skills, better preparing them for the job market.
- Revising the entrepreneurship curriculum across the nine participating higher education institutions (HEIs) is essential.
- Building strong networks and partnerships with industry players enhances the learning experience, providing students with valuable real-world insights and opportunities.

3. Recommendations: To further these goals, the workshop recommended:

- Promoting the concept of Service Learning (SL) and documenting career enhancement activities within universities.
- Identifying industry partners who can support SL and career enhancement initiatives.
- Forming ACCESS Student Clubs for undergraduates and reviewing postgraduate modules to involve students in SL projects, ensuring practical experience and industry exposure.

- Developing a national universal undergraduate curriculum in entrepreneurship.
- Training faculty and staff on effective industry engagement and UBL strategies to better support student career development.

Conclusion

The ACCESS 1.0 highlighted the critical need for stronger linkages between universities and industry to enhance career development for students. Addressing the identified challenges and implementing the proposed strategies will enable universities to better prepare their graduates for the competitive job market, ensuring they possess the necessary skills and knowledge to thrive in their careers. The consortium of 6 African HEIs and University of Leipzig has already applied for ACCESS 2.0 which will see each partner university implement unique programmes towards addressing graduate unemployment in respective countries and Africa, 2025-2029.

MKU'S PIONEERING RESEARCH AND GLOBAL COLLABORATIONS

Mount Kenya University signed a collaborative MOU with Ehime University.

Mount Kenya University has robust research ventures and partnerships with partners across the globe. These collaborations underscore our commitment to addressing global health challenges, particularly malaria, through innovative research and community-oriented solutions.

Our partnership with Ehime University, Japan has led to important studies on malaria. We are working together to understand how different genetic makeups of malaria parasites affect their growth in and outside the human body. This research could help develop new treatment to stop the parasites from growing. Additionally, we have discovered new parts or proteins of the malaria parasite that specifically help the parasite to cause serious infections in pregnant women. The findings are critical in developing interventions and better methods to protect pregnant women and babies from the adverse effects of malaria. In May 2024, MKU hosted a workshop where these and other findings were shared.

Pioneering Community-Based Malaria Control with Osaka Metropolitan University

MKU is at the forefront of evaluating innovative malaria control strategies. One notable project involves assessing the protective efficacy of Olyset®Plus ceiling nets in reducing malaria incidence among children in Homa Bay County, Kenya. This cluster-randomized controlled trial aims to provide evidence on the effectiveness of these nets in real-world settings. Additionally, we are exploring community-oriented malaria control strategies in the Lake Victoria basin. These initiatives are vital in developing sustainable and locally adapted malaria control measures.

Our collaboration with Osaka University focuses on defining malaria infection outcomes through immunoprofiling individuals affected by malaria parasites, Plasmodium spp. This research is part of a broader project that integrates sociological, economic, and medical approaches to tackle malaria eradication in tropical Africa. By understanding the immune responses of affected individuals, we aim to develop targeted interventions that can significantly reduce malaria transmission and morbidity.

MKU is also collaborating with other esteemed Japanese institutions such as Nagasaki University, Kobe University, Tottori University, Tohoku University, among others. These collaborations span various research projects, all aimed at understanding and mitigating the impacts of malaria and other infectious diseases.

Fostering International Exchange

Beyond research, MKU is committed to fostering international exchange programs. This year, under the Sakura Science Exchange, a team of six researchers from MKU visited Ehime University for a three-week exchange program. Additionally, one student visited Nagasaki University for training on working with malaria parasites. MKU also hosted a total of seven Japanese professors from various universities who visited MKU for collaborative research and discussions on how to strengthen this collaboration. The Sakura Exchange Program and these visits provide our students and faculty with invaluable opportunities to gain new perspectives, enhance their skills, and contribute to global knowledge exchange.

Looking Ahead

“We celebrate our global partnerships and the significant strides we are making in research and innovation. Together with our Japanese counterparts, MKU is not only contributing to the global fight against malaria but also enhancing our academic and research capabilities. We look forward to continuing this journey of collaboration, discovery, and impact.” Says Dr. Bernard Kanoi, a Biomedical scientist and a Senior Research Fellow at the Centre for Malaria Elimination, Mount Kenya University.

KENYAN RESEARCH GROUP VISITS EHIME PREFECTURE FOR JOINT RESEARCH WITH EHIME UNIVERSITY

A research group from Mount Kenya University, visited Ehime Prefecture and has begun joint research aimed at eradicating malaria at the Ehime University Proteoscience Center.

MKU is conducting research on early diagnosis and treatment of malaria. The Center entered into an academic exchange agreement with Mount Kenya University in May 2023. The purpose of the joint research is to establish a serodiagnostic method that can detect asymptomatic infected individuals. Using the center’s wheat cell-free protein synthesis technology, the company will be able to easily and quickly test for antibodies that develop in the body of malaria patients by measuring antibodies and analyzing data.

MKU, CAPE MEDIA LAUNCH TALENT ACADEMY

Mount Kenya University and Cape Media have launched a Talent Academy, to train creatives in a bid to enable them to progress their careers within the industry that is increasingly becoming a key sector for Kenya's economy.

The Cape Media Talent Academy will be domiciled at MKU. The two institutions also inked a pact where MKU will provide the Cape Media Talent Academy with creative content as developed by the students.

Prof Deogratius Jaganyi, Vice Chancellor MKU, noted that the creative industry has potential to offer employment to many young people and at the same time transform young people into entrepreneurs in the creative industry. This is an innovative strategy in job creation within the continent of Africa and in other developing countries across the world. The creative arts industry is a popular engagement and given the increasing interest across the world of persons who turn to the entertainment industry for leisure, the Cape Media's Talent Academy becomes a very important intervention in youth skills development and jobs creation. This will allow the talented students to be engaged by the Academy in various and different ways, hence leading to job creation.

Mwenda Njoka, Chief Executive Officer, Cape Media, which owns the fast-growing TV47 and Radio47, encourages students to give the creative a stab even as they pursue their education in different areas, which may not necessarily be related to the creative industry.

"The idea is to give young, talented students an opportunity to utilise their talent in all spheres of creative industry even as they go about their academics," says, Njoka.

"We would like to encourage you to pursue your dreams even if it is not in the field, you are currently undertaking in school."

The programme will be targeted at students in universities and beneficiaries will acquire professional hands-on training, as well as employment opportunities, among other key incentives.

"I applaud the thought behind the initiative, for it is no doubt key to addressing the mismatch of skills that has been a hindrance for young people pursuing careers in the creative economy," said Nelly Muluka, Ag. Chief Manager, Corporate Services and Administration, Kenya Film Classification Board (KFCB)

This initiative is in line with the Government's resolve to spur the growth of the creative space through talent development and monetization. Talent Academy at MKU is expected to play part in moving forward this goal. The creative industry has been tipped to hold immense potential but remains unexplored in Kenya. It contributes three percent to the global Gross Domestic Product.

The Creative Economy has the potential to transform Kenya's fortunes and improve the livelihoods of our youth through job creation and income generation.

"I call upon you to be observant of the trends in the creative space, work closely with industry experts, and above all leverage on technology to monetize and tell your authentic stories." asserts, Muluka.

MKU maritime academy opens its doors to cultivate the next generation of maritime professionals, ready to navigate the challenges and seize the boundless opportunities in the world's oceans delivered in a dynamic learning environment where innovation meets tradition.

The Vasco da Gama Pillar in Malindi, Kenya, stands as a testament to the enduring legacy of maritime exploration and the historic voyages of the Portuguese explorer Vasco da Gama. Erected in 1498 - 1499, this iconic monument commemorates da Gama's pioneering journey from Lisbon to India via the Cape of Good Hope (1497-99). His first visit to Malindi, from April 15 to 24, 1498, marked a significant moment in the Age of Discovery, symbolizing the beginning of a new era of global maritime connections.

In this spirit of exploration and maritime excellence, MKU Maritime Academy, positioned in the historic coastal town of Malindi, seeks to build on this rich legacy by fostering a new generation of maritime professionals. Offering state-of-the-art training and educational programs, aligned with the University's vision "To be a Global Hub of Excellence in Education, Research and Innovation," the Maritime Academy is committed to providing top-tier education, cutting-edge research opportunities, and fostering innovative solutions in the maritime field. The academy will not only honor the historical significance of Vasco da Gama's voyage but also propel forward the university's mission of shaping global leaders and innovators.

MKU ACQUIRES INTERACTIVE DISPLAYS TO ENHANCE INNOVATION IN TEACHING AND LEARNING

Chairman, Board of Directors, MKU Prof. Simon Gicharu hands over interactive displays.

In response to the growing demand for more engaging and collaborative learning environments, Mount Kenya University has integrated the use of Interactive displays and smart classrooms to enhance learning experiences and elevate the e-learning and conference experience. These interactive displays support a dynamic platform for content delivery, fostering participation, and interactivity. The university intends to build Smart classrooms across the campuses and recording studios for content development. This complements earlier developments where the university began a journey of self-paced content development and digitization

Chairman, Board of Directors, Mount Kenya University, handed over to the Vice-Chancellor 18 interactive displays that will enhance lecturer-student interaction virtually. The devices were acquired from China at a cost of KSh 28 million.

“The interactive displays allow lecturers to incorporate a range of useful apps or teaching aids that support in simplifying different concepts in class, hence enabling lecturers to be more effective in training students virtually,” he adds.

Prof. Gicharu observes that the traditional model of “brick and mortar universities” would most likely be replaced by Open Universities that offer programmes through virtual platforms and retain only small administrative offices.

“As a University, we need to ensure that we are alive to where the world is going, embrace technological transformations, and integrate digital technologies with Artificial Intelligence (AI) and optimize on the positive contribution to improve livelihoods. He maintains that the digital transformation agenda will be embraced in all Open and Distance Electronic Learning (ODEL) platforms and that MKU students will be among the first in the country to benefit from this technology.

“We expect that these interactive displays will be fully integrated in our training in Thika main campus and also in all our campuses and ODEL centers. We are fully committed to ensure that our students have the best learning experience,” the Chairman stated. The Vice-Chancellor Prof. Deogratus says, it is high time for MKU to fully embrace the fourth industrial revolution by entrenching technology mediated modalities of teaching and learning in order to meet the needs and expectations of the current generation.

“MKU has already embraced digital transformation and we are well aware that pacing up growth in digital technologies will give us a competitive advantage in a turbulent and highly competitive higher education environment,” The interactive Displays will support content delivery and enhance interaction between the students and their lecturers.

The interactive displays will be useful in supporting collaborations, conferencing and presentations for postgraduate students hence promoting a vibrant research ecosystem in the University. All this will go a long way towards enhancing the transformative quality of teaching in e-learning and conferencing experiences at MKU,” Prof. Jaganyi added.

The Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Academic and Research Affairs Dr. Mercyline Kamande notes the University has more than 12,000 registered students under Open, Distance and e-learning mode who will immensely benefit from the digital interactive displays.

Startup|Energy a joint initiative of Stiftung Solarenergie (Germany) and the University of Freiburg sponsored a clean energy boot camp in Nairobi from 10th-15th April 2024 for selected universities in Uganda, Kenya and Germany. The following four universities were involved in the boot camp:

- Germany: Albert-Ludwigs-Universität, Freiburg
- Kenya: Mount Kenya University
- Kenya: Kenyatta University
- Uganda: Makerere University Business School, Kampala

The main objective of the boot-camp was to spur innovation and commercialization of clean energy innovations, through training, industry tours and direct access to an international network of the most relevant partners, investors, and mentors in their field.

The Head of Department accompanied three students for the week-long event. Bettinah Maruti presented her project – EcoFroz, a solar powered cold room to preserve fresh produce, Esbon Ogetto’ project dubbed Solar Quench is on solar-powered atmospheric water harvesting system and Abdi Mohammed’s Eco-H2 is on green hydrogen

The boot camp kicked off with an intensive training program, by local and international coaches and professionals. As a kind of “reality check”, the participants visited four local start-ups on the third day and were able to discuss about the practical experiences with the founders. These are:

- Llyord Mwaniki Gitau, Co-Founder of Zuhura Solutions, which has developed for the first time in East Africa a food vending cart powered by renewable energy: the “Halisi Trolley”
- James Mulatya, Co-Founder of Drop Access, whose flagship product is a mobile solar refrigerator for medicines and vaccines
- Omondi Makalliwa, Founder of TryKe Group Limited: a booming startup in the e-logistics sector in Kenya
- Chris Maara, Founder of Kiri EV, operating with a disruptive business approach for electric bikes.

The Bootcamp concluded on April 15 with a public pitch event at Kenyatta University where MKU Officials (Dr. Henry Yatich and Prof. Peter Wanderi) and other officials from Kenya climate Venture, Kenya Industrial Research and Development Institute (KIRDI), National Environmental Management Authority, ICT Authority of Kenya and hosts of seasoned entrepreneurs participated.

“The bootcamp has proven to be an exceptional program to help us to take first steps in launching our startups. The team has been extremely supportive to help us to validate our ideas, as well as to develop our pitching skills, I feel a foot taller as an entrepreneur, I learnt things I didn’t even realise I need” says Ms. Bettinah Maruti, a Mount Kenya University Engineering Student.

The three innovators are set to continue receiving mentorship from the German-based organization in addition to the ongoing accelerator program at the university’s innovation and incubation centre.

GRADUATE WORKING IN AUSTRIA

Caroline Mwihaki, Bachelor of Science in Nursing graduate.

I am immensely proud and honored to be one of the nursing graduates from Mount Kenya University to be deployed to Lebenshilfe Tirol in Austria. This milestone reflects the hard work and dedication that I, along with my fellow graduates, have invested in our studies. It also highlights the strong international partnerships that MKU has fostered. Throughout my training at MKU, I have been committed to achieving excellence in both nursing and mastering the German language. This rigorous preparation has equipped me with the skills and knowledge necessary to excel in the Austrian healthcare system. MKU's high educational standards and vision of creating global citizens have been instrumental in my journey. The collaboration between MKU and Lebenshilfe Tirol has provided us with exceptional professional opportunities, comprehensive training, and cultural competence. This opportunity is not just a personal achievement but also a testament to the quality education and international pathways that MKU creates for its students. I look forward to making significant contributions to the community at Lebenshilfe Tirol and embodying the values and skills honed during my time at MKU. I am excited to embark on this new chapter in my professional journey, and I am confident that this experience will be a cornerstone of my career in nursing.

Enhanced Career Opportunities

MOUNT KENYA UNIVERSITY SENDS NURSING APPRENTICES TO WORK IN GERMANY

Mount Kenya University first cohort of five students celebrates after receiving their apprentice contracts.

Mount Kenya University has sent the first cohort of five students to Germany to offer healthcare services in the European country. The graduates were presented with their work permits, visas, and air tickets, all fully funded by Caritas Hospital (Germany), one of the project's partner institutions in Germany. The partnership between MKU and Hochschule Koblenz University of Applied Sciences of Germany offers paid apprenticeships and jobs to young Kenyans. Students interested in the opportunities are required to have German Language proficiency and pursue a preparatory programme in Nursing apprenticeship for German hospitals.

Study in Kenya work in Germany

Prof. Deogratius Jaganyi, MKU Vice-Chancellor said the project aligns with the government's quest to increase work opportunities for Kenyans abroad. The government has signed bilateral labour agreements with different countries to allow the country to export their skills. On May 25, last year, President Willam Ruto announced that Germany had opened doors for 250,000 Kenyans to work in Germany.

"As a training institution, it is upon us to support the President's initiative by actualizing this endeavor. In this regard, MKU in partnership with the German university, aims to establish structures and processes that will prepare 5,000 Kenyans to work in Germany in various sectors expanding the job horizon for our people aligns very well with our motto of unlocking infinite possibilities," Prof. Jaganyi said.

The 1st pilot cohort has successfully gone through the German language B2 Level of proficiency and completed preparatory course". The cohort is made up of Gekonge Mogambi, Aisha Wacuka, Hellen Okwaro, Bonciana Chepkorir, and Teresiah Muthoni. AG-Career Hub founded by Kenyan Professionals based in Germany supports the beneficiaries of this project to integrate with their new environment and culture as they commence their paid apprenticeships in Germany to support the labour market.

MKU has a similar Australia partnership with Lebenshilfe Tirol of Austria that also enables nursing graduates from the Kenyan university to work in Austria. MKU expects to initially have 60 nursing graduates to travel to Austria. Graduates are required to have German language B1 Level. MKU curricula is continuously reviewed to meet national, Regional and market needs of the industry and commercial sectors.

Connecting Dreams to Opportunities

MKU FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP BENEFICIARIES EXCEL IN THE JOB MARKET

For nearly a decade, Mount Kenya University Foundation (MKUF) has enabled a diverse tapestry of students achieve their academic dreams by offering full or partial scholarships. These scholarships, which are issued after a thorough application and vetting process, are open to all bona-fide students of Mount Kenya University. MKUF also engages in other programmes whose overall goal is to advance the course of education, and serve the community. In early July, MKUF sponsored the procurement and installation of cutting-edge recreational sporting facilities for students with special needs. The centre will be equipped with a showdown table and bats, opaque blindfolds and goalball balls. MKUF also donated a 100-seater tent to Huduma Centre-Thika. The Centre serves about 1,300 Kenyans per day and the tent comes in handy in shielding them from rain or scorching sun.

TESTIMONIALS

MERCY CHELAGAT

Place of work: Elite Group of Schools, Murang'a County

Programme: Bachelor of Education (Special Needs)

I was a recipient of the Mount Kenya University Foundation scholarships in semester 3.2. The scholarship enabled me to finish my education and graduate on time, alongside my peers. The high quality education from MKU enabled me to get a job soon after graduation. Being at MKU was also a good experience, especially networking with different people. Upon graduation, I furthered my training by undertaking a sign language course at Kenya Institute of Special Education. I now teach multiple classes and subjects at my school, namely English literature to Grade 7 and 8 pupils, and to Form Four candidates. I also teach Agriculture and Nutrition. I have a passion in working with children who have special needs. My dream is to work at United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

CYNTHIA MUTHONIPlace of work: Ruiru Hospital, Kiambu CountyProgramme: Bachelor of Counselling Psychology

I work at the hospital's psychology department and at the Comprehensive Care Centre. Clients are referred to us when in need of counselling over various issues such as loss and grief, and psychological trauma. We also provide counselling to HIV patients who are in denial, and students who are referred to us.

Initially, I wanted to become a lawyer. At Graceland Girls in Nyeri, where I undertook my secondary education, I was a very good debater. It was while researching on one debate topic that I came across the subject of psychology. I found it very interesting and decided to study it at Mount Kenya University. The scholarship from Mount Kenya University Foundation enabled me complete my studies. I am now volunteering at Ruiru Hospital as I prepare to pursue my Masters in Forensic Psychology. I am also pursuing a German language course.

MAENYA MAKORI JOASH*Place of work: Wayara Secondary, Homa Bay CountyProgramme: Bachelor of Education (Special Needs)

I hail from a humble background in Kisii County. My parents are peasant farmers. The scholarship from Mount Kenya University Foundation enabled me to complete my studies. I graduated with a Second Class-Upper Division. Even before my graduation, I had resolved that hard work and pursuit of excellence would be my pillars as I entered the job market. I was therefore not selective in the places of work. When I got this opportunity in Homa Bay, I jumped at it. I teach English and Literature to students from Form One to Form Four. At 23, I believe I am on the right course professionally. I hope to go back to MKU soon to pursue my Masters degree. I am grateful to MKU Foundation for making my dream come true.

MKU FOUNDATION SPONSORS CUTTING-EDGE SPORTING EQUIPMENT FOR SPECIAL NEEDS STUDENTS

Mount Kenya University has sponsored the procurement and installation of cutting-edge sporting equipment for students with special needs. The equipment will enable students at Thika Main Campus engage in an array of recreational activities as they pursue their studies. The signature equipment is a Showdown table, popular worldwide for the visually-impaired. It is similar to table tennis and players bat a ball off the side wall of a table, along its edges, and under a centre screen aiming for the opponent's goal. Each player serves two times in a row. The first player to reach eleven points, leading by two or more points, is the winner.

“Our aim to ensure Mount Kenya University is the most friendly and accommodating institution of higher learning in Africa for those with special needs,” says Mount Kenya University Foundation patron Prof. Simon Gicharu.

In December 2023, MKU's affiliate in Rwanda Mount Kigali University won the '2023 Disability Inclusion Award' by the National Council of Persons with Disabilities for its support to students and staff with special needs.

The games equipment will be installed at the newly-refurbished and expanded Students Centre in Thika. John Mwangi Ndungu, the University Braille Transcriber who works closely with the students with special needs says they will increase the variety of games to accommodate the diverse category of students with special needs. Currently, the campus hosts 73 students with special needs.

The 'Sector Policy for Learners and Trainees with Disabilities' (MoE, 2018) identifies 11 categories of learners with special needs and disabilities: Hearing impairment, Visual impairment, Deaf-blindness, Physical impairment, Intellectual and developmental disabilities, Specific learning disabilities, Cerebral palsy, Speech and language difficulties, Multiple disabilities, Autism and Albinism.

The June 2023 report of the Presidential Working Party on Education Reform in Kenya highlighted “lack of appropriate learning resources to suit learners” as one of the factors limiting access to education for students with special needs.

Over the years, MKU has been actively providing the appropriate learning resources. In partnership with Kilimanjaro Blind Trust Africa, the university has made available Orbit Reader 20 devices for use by students. It also has numerous braille machines, for use by both the visually impaired and students undertaking programmes in Special Needs Education. Students who cannot read or write in braille also have access to a customized IT-software that enables them to write their exams with ease.

“We are in the process of benchmarking with other institutions of higher learning, locally and internationally, to enhance inclusion of students and adaptation of facilities available,” adds Mr. Mwangi.

Through its patron, MKU Foundation ensures students with special needs of continuous support as they engage in various curricular and co-curricular activities that'll enable them actualize their dreams.

THE DEPUTY VICE-CHANCELLOR MOUNT KIGALI UNIVERSITY

DR. EUGENIA IRECHUKWU
Deputy Vice-Chancellor,
Mount Kigali University

On behalf of Mount Kigali University, I am delighted to celebrate with all the Mount Kenya University graduands. This is a moment of joy for them and their families as they receive their hard-earned reward and are ushered into the world to be forces of development nationally and internationally. I take note of this year's 25th Graduation theme, 'University sustainability through research and innovation'. Teaching, research and innovation should be both inter- and transdisciplinary, leading to mutual learning. A university is sustainable when it realizes sustainability in all its dimensions especially in teaching, research, extension and management. Mount Kigali University is following in the footsteps of its mother, Mount Kenya University, in its commitment to teaching and research.

As we continue to roll out the remaining cohorts of Mount Kenya University students by 2026/7, our mission is to consistently provide transformational training, research, innovation and community service for socio-economic development in Health Sciences, Business, Social Sciences, Hospitality and Tourism, Media/Communication, and Technology.

We recently introduced new programmes in Dental and Nursing to strengthen the government initiatives aimed at enriching the healthcare system. These are our niche academic programmes, and over the years, we have invested heavily in continual improvements in infrastructural facilities, teaching and learning, student welfare and research and innovation, to keep our standards high.

On infrastructure, for example, we now boast a modern state-of-the-art campus with adequate science and computer laboratories. Our Nursing Skills Laboratory is among the most advanced in East and Central Africa. We also have a well-equipped University Medical Centre (UMC) that serves the public and the university community. It is also used as a centre for learning by our health sciences students.

Our journalism students enjoy access to the university's Royal FM radio station, which has well-equipped studios for practical lessons.

The latest addition to our infrastructure is Kigali Paramount Hotel. Ear-marked to be opened this year, the hotel will play a big role in hands-on hospitality training. It will be the first of its kind in Rwanda and a regional centre of excellence in hospitality training.

All learners have access to our well-stocked library. Its operations are automated using the Library Information Management System (KOHA). It has an Online Public Access Catalogue. The library has over 11,000 books and 100,000 e-books. On accommodation, our hostels are designed to be student-friendly, and therefore feature additional recreational facilities such as a swimming pool, and facilities for indoor games.

One of our objectives is to nurture great thinkers with independent minds. Towards this, we require our undergraduate and graduate students to undertake independent individual research that can be published in academic publications. This is a path to innovation.

In a nutshell, our teaching and learning strategy is central to achieving our mission of transformational training, research and innovation.

In Africa, Rwanda is a showcase of economic and social progress in many respects, including the internationalisation of education. Mount Kigali University mirrors this disposition. While a majority of our students are Rwandans, scores from other African nations, as well as from Asia and Europe study at or have graduated from Mount Kigali University. We are committed to empowering generations throughout the world through quality education.

I congratulate the Mount Kenya University Class of August 2024 for making it in their studies. The sky's the limit. May your dreams come true!

MKU PARKLANDS LAW CAMPUS GETS INFRASTRUCTURAL BOOST TO ENHANCE PRACTICAL TRAINING AND STUDENTS' WELFARE

MKU School of Law staff and students celebrate after receiving their new bus.

In a significant boost to students' welfare initiatives, MKU Parklands Law Campus has increased its fleet by acquiring a dedicated bus to support academic field trips and extra-curricular activities. The move comes as a response to the campus's expanding student population, which has seen a steady rise in numbers over the past few years. The acquisition of the bus addresses the pressing need for reliable transportation to support various academic and extracurricular activities. Notably, the bus facilitates student participation in prestigious events such as moot court competitions, where the campus has demonstrated remarkable success. In a recent regional moot court competition held in Rwanda, 40 students from MKU

Parklands Law Campus showcased their legal prowess and emerged victorious, further highlighting the campus's commitment to academic excellence. MKU School of Law has also participated in the Manfred Lachs International Space Law moot court competition held in Pretoria, South Africa. Moreover; the bus enable student clubs like the Red Cross, Wakili wa Watoto, and KMUN to engage in legal clinics, community service, and advocacy efforts.

Mwanga Mwadziwe, Chair of the Mount Kenya University Students Council, expressed profound appreciation for the University's responsiveness to students' needs. He emphasized the significance of the campus long-awaited dream coming to fruition.
