

INVESTIGATION OF FACTORS INFLUENCING LEARNERS ATTITUDES TOWARD LEARNING MATHEMATICS IN SECONDARY SCHOOLS IN MWEA ZONE IN KIRINYAGACOUNTY

BY

NGUGI MILTON NG'ANG'A

BED (REG) 09/05342

A RESEARCH PROJEC SUBMITTED IN PARTIAL FULFILMENT OF REQUIREMENT FOR AWARD OF BACHELOR DEGREE OF EDUCATION (SCIENCE) IN MT KENYA UNIVERSITY

APRIL 2012

ABSTRACT

This text consist of five major sections these are; introduction, literature review , methodology, analysis of data, presentation, conclusion and recommendation

Section one gives an overview of the problem that is the factors influences learners attitude toward learning mathematics in secondary schools.

The second section which is the literature review tries to analyze those factors that influences learners attitudes towards learning mathematics

The third section deals with the research design and methodology that was used to carry out research.

The forth section presents the analysis of data and finding emanating from the analysis.

The five section contain conclusion and recommendation. It provides summary of study, the conclusions with respect to the findings and lists of recommendation based on the findings in the study.

In addition, references of the related review and the appendices that provide questionnaire, time line and budget estimates are also attached.

The locale of study/research is in Mwea zone in Kirinyaga County