

THE ROLE OF PRIVATE SECURITY FIRMS IN PREVENTING TERRORISM IN KENYA; THE CASE STUDY OF K.K
SECURITY IN NAIROBI CBD:

BY: MERCYLINE BONARERI ABUGA

BCRM/113/00550

A RESEARCH PROJECT PROPOSAL SUBMITTED IN PARTIAL FULFILMENT OF THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE AWARD
OF A BACSM DEGREE IN CRIMINOLOGY AND SECURITY MANAGEMENT OF MOUNT KENYA UNIVERSITY.

2015

ABSTRACT

This project is meant to find out the role played by private security guards in preventing and mitigating terrorism in the Nairobi Central Business District. It is guided by the following objectives: To establish the roles of private security firms in controlling terrorism; Find the level of training of security guards to combat terrorism; To establish the suitability of equipments used in combating terrorism; To determine the level of cooperation between private security firms and government security agencies in identifying and combating terrorism; and To give recommendations on ways to improve the private security firms to make them better and able in security management. The research will adopt survey methodology as it is a suitable method of collecting and analyzing data from a large population within a short period of time and it does not affect the variables of study.