

MT KENYA UNIVERSITY (M.K.U)

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

DEPARTMENT OF CURRICULUM & INSTRUCTIONS

Effects of external motivation on student's performance in secondary schools in Kisasi District, Kitui County

A Project submitted to the Department of Education in partial fulfillment for the award of Bachelors Degree in Education science

By

Gideon Karambu Mtoto

Bed (SB) 09/04927

Date of submission October 2011

Abstract

The research intends to find out the effects of external motivation on students performance among secondary school students in Kisasi district in Kitui County through the following questions;

1. What are the different types of external motivation activities used in improving students performance in Kisasi district?
2. What a challenges do teachers face when motivating their students in Kisasi district?
3. What can teachers do to effectively use external motivation in Kisasi district?

The researcher will use descriptive survey design. The sample of the research study will composed of 200 students, 40 teachers and 10 principals. The instruments to be used in collecting data will be questionnaires and unstructured interview