ABSTRACT

The study was carried out at Kibauni zone in Mwala District. It involved studying of factors affecting the performance of public schools in Kibauni Zone, Mwala district. A survey design was used to carry out the study. A few schools were sampled for the study in which the focus was on pupils, teachers, parents and education officer-Zonal Inspector. The factors under considerations were: Inefficiency, governance and management of schools, social –cultural factors, staff motivation and economic status. One of the challenges faced was that some respondents were not willing to disclose all the information. Finance was also a challenge especially when it came to travelling and paper work.
