ABSTRACT

The issue of indiscipline rises every each day though the schools have implemented rules and regulations. In Kenya many schools have been facing this problem leading to destruction of property and even loss of life including Kimugui high school in Bungoma County. This study is an investigation of the factors that contribute to indiscipline in Kimugui high school. The researcher intents to carry out the study with guidance of the following objectives; to find out the cause of indiscipline, to determine the results of indiscipline on academic performance and to find out the solutions to the problem. The researcher will look into ways the teachers have used to fight away this case of indiscipline. She will also investigate whether available measures implemented are of any help to curb the problem in the school.
