ABSTRACT

Indiscipline among pupils and students is on the increase in schools. This is a fact borne out by daily happenings in schools. It has become one of the serious problems being faced by the country. Children go on strikes, they resort to copying and cheating, in exams, insult their teachers and head teachers. The study is aimed at establishing critical analysis of teachers and pupils perception on the role of guidance and counseling on pupils discipline in Kakamega East district.

The research will assist primary school head teachers to be able to identify the ways of using guiding and counseling to reduce indiscipline, it will also assist them to identify the right measures to employ on guidance and counseling to address these problems and ensure that the cases of school indiscipline are curbed.
