

FACTORS AFFECTING EFFECTIVE PUBLIC PROCUREMENT AND DISPOSAL IN SECONDARY SCHOOLS

(A case study of Garissa township)

HUSSEIN SIYAT MURSAL

REG NO BBM/2013/42939

A RESEARCH PROJECT PRESENTED IN PARTIAL FULFILMENT OF THE REQUIREMENT FOR THE AWARD OF DEGREE OF BACHELORS OF BUSINESS
MANAGEMENT OF MOUNT KENYA UNIVERSITY

DECEMBER 2015

ABSTRACT

The research is a compilation of research of factors affecting effective public procurement and disposal in public institutions. All documents consists of five chapters with an introduction that gives the location of the study identifying the problem statement of the study. The literature review emphasizes on the three variables which include; corruption, legal framework and information communication technology. The study used a descriptive research design to obtain information. The study used questionnaire as a tool for data collection. Conclusion's, findings and interpretation of the data collectected was analyzed and interpreted as per the each objective by the researcher based on the findings. The data was also summarized; conclude and recommended as per each objective. The data collected was also presented using charts, bar graphs, percentages and frequency tables. The study also gave its limitations and suggested areas for further study since it did not cover all the factors affecting effective public procurement and Disposal in public institutions.